

PERMANENT EXHIBITION : Room "Today"

Expression about protection

Go to room 11 « today » in the basement, to the underneath module « protection », which at the end of the permanent exhibition presents one of the major topics of the Red Cross Activities.

MODULE protect (protéger - schützen)

The Geneva Conventions protect prisoners of war, civil prisoners as well as political prisoners.

Enter the cell all at the same time and remain there in silence during two minutes, either sitting on the floor or walking around quietly.

Then specify three feelings which you experience in this situation and write three sentences that you would like to write to your relatives in a letter:

1 st feeling :	1 st sentence in a letter to your relatives:
2 nd feeling :	2 nd sentence in a letter to your relatives:
3 rd feeling :	3 rd sentence in a letter to your relatives:
